

TOE TAPPIN' THURSDAY—DECEMBER 1

Virginia Roots Music: Celebrate and Educate!

NOON

“Virginia Roots Music: A Celebration”
MULTIMEDIA LECTURE by Dr. Gregg Kimball

3:30–5:30 PM
WORKSHOP

6:00–8:00 PM
EVENING CONCERT
featuring

The Paschall Brothers, a cappella gospel quartet
Mark Campbell, old-time musician
Jeffrey Scott, bluesman and songster

Come enjoy and learn about Virginia's most enduring musical traditions, from blues to gospel to old-time string bands! Three of Virginia's most talented artists will perform and discuss Virginia's musical legacy and its influence on American popular and roots music.

In addition to the free lecture at noon, please join us at a Workshop for educators, librarians, museum professionals, and anyone interested in the diverse sounds of Virginia. Presentations will incorporate original 78-rpm recordings, images, and live musical performance by our artists, who will be joined by Diana Covington Greer, music educator, and Dr. Gregg Kimball. Participants will receive a packet of materials including:

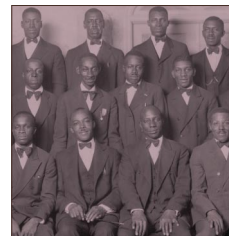

PUBLICATIONS ON VIRGINIA MUSIC • SONG SHEETS WITH LYRICS & ARTIST BIOGRAPHIES • CD'S WITH SOUND CLIPS • ONE TICKET TO THE EVENING CONCERT

The workshop will be followed by the Virginia Traditional Music Concert from 6:00 to 8:00 PM. The concert will include the Paschall Brothers, a gospel quartet from Chesapeake who were recently featured at the National Folk Festival; old-time musician Mark Campbell, winner of many fiddle contests including the prestigious Appalachian String Band Music Festival; and Jeffrey Scott, a bluesman and songster, recently featured at the Blue Ridge Heritage Festival and the D.C. Blues Festival.

The WORKSHOP FEE IS $20 and includes one ticket to the evening concert (registration required). The Virginia Traditional Music CONCERT TICKETS ARE $10. For information contact Gregg Kimball at 804-692-3722.
